Where to get literature (library collections)

With a library card, you can borrow printed books: fiction is available from the Fiction Circulation Desk (main building, room 1), and scientific and educational literature is available from the Scientific Literature Circulation Desk (main building, room 22). Printed books are also available in the Student Reading Room and the Humanities and Scientific Literature Reading Room (main building, 2nd floor, room 143).

The Electronic Library (AIBS MegaPro) will help you find the book you need:

Select a search type (simple, advanced, dictionary, or cross-search). Search results include full information about a publication, including the number of copies available and their loan service. You can use the search without logging in.

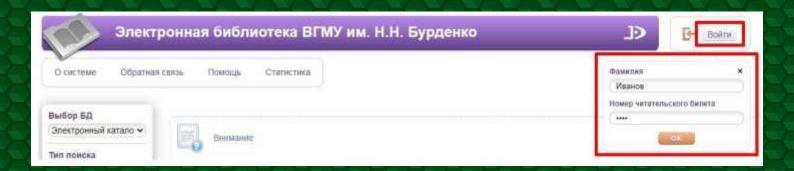

Logging in allows you to:

• Отчеты

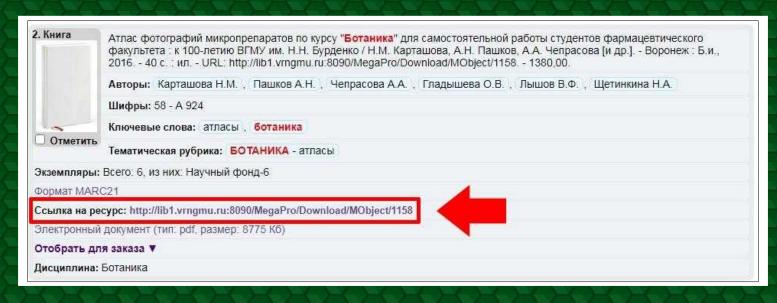

>> select a publication to order

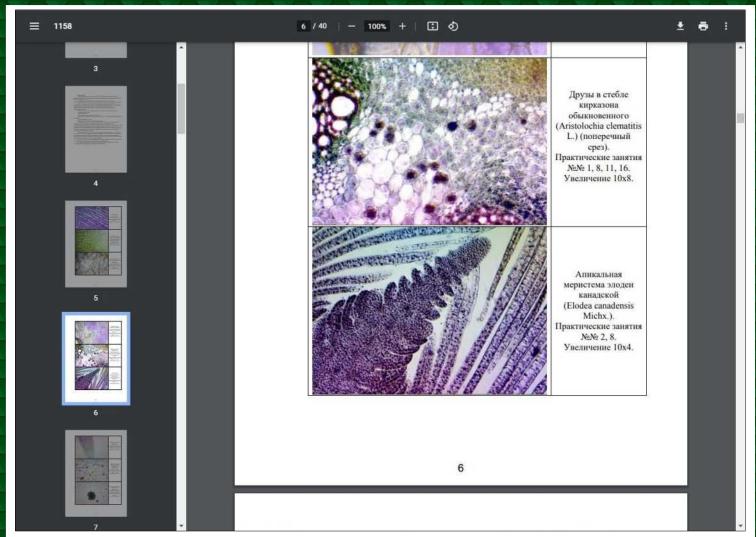

Дисциплина: Ботаника

>> view electronic documents with the full text of some publications To log in, enter your last name and library card number.

The publication, which contains an electronic document with the full text, has a corresponding link to the resource (http://lib1.vrngmu:8090/MegaPro/...):

The document can be downloaded and saved on your device.
